

HARTFORD HERALD.

FRANK L. FELIN Proprietor
HEBER MATTHEWS Editor
Subscription $1 per Year, in advance

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11.

Democratic Ticket.

For Governor—WILLIAM GOODEL, of Kenton county.

For Lieutenant Governor—J. C. W. BECHER, of Nelson county.

For State Senator—JUDGE R. J. BUCHANAN, of Boyle county.

For Auditor—G. C. COLE, of Boone county.

For Treasurer—JESSE W. BOYD, of Boyd county.

For Sept. Public Auditor—H. V. MICHENER, of Franklin county.

For Commissioner of Agriculture—COLE, R. H., of Bell Buckle.

For Railroad Commissioner—J. P. DUNN, of Kentucky.

For Commissioner of Highways—A. T. DOUGHERTY, of Kentucky.

For Postmaster—W. L. STEWART, of Boone county.

To represent—L. L. STEWART, Boone county.

The Republican campaign general of Kentucky are now attired in fatigues uniform.

The Brown faction will not be permitted the chicken on the hill, but they should be contented with the prospect of the large dish of corn they will have access to after the counting is done.

The true story of the Sandford-Goeble duel, which Mr. Sandford lost his life, is told on the first page of THE HERALD to-day. The account is likely to be more creditable to the author than to the Fox ally twins, and it is without doubt entirely reliable.

Mr. C. M. PENDLETON's stinging letter to the editors of the Republican still stands unanswered and unanswered. The effort attempt of the Fox ally twins to cast a slur upon the honor and integrity of Charley Pendleton, is as futile as it is disgusting.

The trouble in the Transvaal is still at a critical stage, and it seems that war can not be averted much longer. England would win no glory in such a fight and her prestige would be greatly impaired. The sympathy of almost every enlightened portion of the world is with the Boers. Back in their gallant struggle for independence, and England will only bring dishonor upon her own head by continuing in her present attitude.

No scone has been left untouched, no tale untold and no secret un-worked by the opponents of Democracy, and we have the tick-tock of his hands. And yet the effect has been only to strengthen Democracy's standard-bearers and bring to the support of the regular ticket a crowd of loyal voters which outnumbers the participants in any former election. Present indications are that Goeble will get many more votes than both Taylor and Brown put together.

DEMOCRATS from all over this section of country will come to Hartford to-morrow to hear Senator Gobell and Capt. Blackburn speak. Every Democrat who is interested in the welfare of his party should be on hand. It will be a big, one, and we urge everybody to come and bring his neighbor. The ladies especially are invited.

BRO. JARAGGIN breaks into print to say that the reason he did not vote for the China school bill was that he had a bad temper one of his own. So far, so good. But say, Bro. Dick—what have to do with you so much, but won't you please tell us why you did not vote for that miners' favorite bill, after expressing yourself such a friend to the miners? We believe you are a good boy and mean well, but we don't believe your record will speak favorably with what Mr. Lou Stewart would be in his power.

MR. BRYAN's wonderful capacity for leadership and his genius for popularity, place him far and away in advance of any possible Democratic candidate for the Presidency next year. There are few men in the United States to-day who approach him in all the mental qualities of great leaders and a great man.

Dr. Gobell's views and the people's champion. His conception and elucidation of the leading issues of the day are marvelously correct, and his views on public questions are without doubt more advanced than those of any other party leader.

FANTASTIC efforts are being made by the boltin and Republican press to convince the public that Mr. Gobell was a "boldfaced" upstart, and a "money" man. Whatever Mr. Gobell may have to say upon the subject, however, will be taken with the same degree of confidence that is reposed in that gentleman as the leader of the Kentucky Democracy to-day. But the best efforts of the opposition fail to establish the fact that Mr. Gobell ever led the fight against free-silver, or identified himself in any palpable way with the faction which was so bent on the destruction of the Democratic party a few years ago.

SCHOOL TEACHERS, professors of science and other persons in doubt along with the newspaper men, have been invited to come to the Seminary of knowledge and be fitted, Bro. Jaraggin's little "P. S.—Anything you want explained, please call on me," evidently means the whole list of the unknowable and unknown. The intellectually lame and halt, here have the chance of their lives to be repaired, without money and without price. Even well informed persons who would add further to their present knowledge, are made beneficiaries of this generous offer. Come, ye disconsolate!

It can not be other than a matter of sincere regret to everybody in Ohio county that Mr. L. L. Stewart, Democracy's candidate for Representative, is quite ill at home in McHenry. Mr. Stewart has typhoid fever. As might naturally be supposed, he is a very sick man, but as yet no dangerous complications have set up, and the disease is progressing fairly well for the patient. Mr. Stewart's various appointments to speak over the county have been called off. In the meantime he is to be supported in the hope that Mr. Stewart may come through this very serious disease all right, and be able and ready to receive the congratulations of his friends on the 7th proximo.

"ALL QUESTIONS ANSWERED." BRO. JARAGGIN WINDS UP "HIS ANSWER" TO THE HERALD WITH THE FOLLOWING:

"P.—Anything else you want explained, please call on me."

All right, glad of the chance for much information. Here goes:

Mr. K., Oct. 27, 1880.

Editor Republ. Attn.—Atchonwitz somewhat surprised at the importance you attach to the fact that I have recently met my friends a preference for Mr. Gobell. Your article in the Citizen assembled at Leesburg on Saturday last, Lee and I were a wednesday woman. She married James Leesburg some years ago, and their marriage life was a happy one. They have six children.

The cabin where she was found is situated in the same yard with her home, and was occupied by a colored farm hand sleeping room and for general storage.

Mrs. Leesburg had been in Mayville shopping Thursday morning and had driven home at noon.

At 12 o'clock the police were sent for, and before they arrived the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for, and assembled at Leesburg on Saturday last, Lee and I were a wednesday woman. She married James Leesburg some years ago, and their marriage life was a happy one. They have six children.

The cabin where she was found is situated in the same yard with her home, and was occupied by a colored farm hand sleeping room and for general storage.

Mrs. Leesburg had been in Mayville shopping Thursday morning and had driven home at noon.

At 12 o'clock the police were sent for, and before they arrived the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for, and assembled at Leesburg on Saturday last, Lee and I were a wednesday woman. She married James Leesburg some years ago, and their marriage life was a happy one. They have six children.

The cabin where she was found is situated in the same yard with her home, and was occupied by a colored farm hand sleeping room and for general storage.

Mrs. Leesburg had been in Mayville shopping Thursday morning and had driven home at noon.

At 12 o'clock the police were sent for, and before they arrived the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for, and assembled at Leesburg on Saturday last, Lee and I were a wednesday woman. She married James Leesburg some years ago, and their marriage life was a happy one. They have six children.

The cabin where she was found is situated in the same yard with her home, and was occupied by a colored farm hand sleeping room and for general storage.

Mrs. Leesburg had been in Mayville shopping Thursday morning and had driven home at noon.

At 12 o'clock the police were sent for, and before they arrived the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for, and assembled at Leesburg on Saturday last, Lee and I were a wednesday woman. She married James Leesburg some years ago, and their marriage life was a happy one. They have six children.

The cabin where she was found is situated in the same yard with her home, and was occupied by a colored farm hand sleeping room and for general storage.

Mrs. Leesburg had been in Mayville shopping Thursday morning and had driven home at noon.

At 12 o'clock the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

and the female仆人, who was a negro slave, was arrested.

The amily owner proved to be Richard Coleman, colored, and was employed as a cook by Mrs. Leesburg.

The action of the negro brought suspicion upon her, and he was once arrested.

As the officers started toward Mayville, the police were sent for,

